Meant to Be

Eventide Faith / Mr. Brok3n / Lyrics by Eric Wright

INTRO

This song is dedicated to the two whose love and support made this album possible. Love you both.

VERSE 1

T, was a country boy, boots on the ground,
C, was a city girl, lights all around.
Went to school together, grew up side by side,
Didn't know back then what God had in mind.

They said their vows, started their life,
Hand in hand, husband and wife.
A simple "I do" turned into years,
A home built strong through joy and tears.

CHORUS

Two hearts, one song,
Holding on to love, holding on so strong.
Through the years, through the laughter and tears,
God's been faithful, guiding all these years.
A boy and a girl, a family tree,
The story of love that was meant to be.

VERSE 2 - THE KIDS

First came a boy, then came a girl,
Their love the center of that little world.
Raised them both with love and prayer,
They showed them love in the life they shared.

The kids grew up with roots that run deep,
Blessings to hold, and memories to keep.
Every step guided, every dream fanned,
Shaped by their care and the strength they stand.

CHORUS

Two hearts, one song,
Holding on to love, holding on so strong.
Through the years, through the laughter and tears,
God's been faithful, guiding all these years.
A boy and a girl, a family tree,
The story of love that was meant to be.

VERSE 3

He worked hard, gave all he had,
Spoiled the kids, Christmases glad.
Taught them truth, to be honest and kind,
A man of his word with a generous mind.

She was the shelter, the softest embrace,
Biggest fan in every race.
Cooked for a few, but you'd think it was more,
A feast for a hundred behind that door.

VERSE 4 - WORK & VENTURES

Every venture, every plan,
They stood together, hand in hand.
From the ground up, they built it true,
Success was sweeter because it was two.

Through the trials, through the climb,
Side by side, time after time.
Faith and love their steady ground,
Every victory shared, every blessing found.

BRIDGE - REFLECTIVE

Through the trials and the climb, they stayed side by side,
Love was the compass and truth was the guide.
Every sacrifice, every plan,
Made their kids the people they are.

FINAL CHORUS - BIG & WARM

Two hearts, one song,
Holding on to love, holding on so strong.
Through the years, through the laughter and tears,
God's been faithful, guiding all these years.
A boy and a girl, a family tree,
The story of love that was meant to be.

OUTRO - GENTLE / FADE

Yeah, life wouldn't be the same without them near,
Best friends, parents, love so clear.
They are what God asks parents to be...
The story of love... meant to be.

TRACK 02

Ash & Iron

Eventide Faith / Mr. Brok3n / Lyrics by Eric Wright

VERSE 1

There's a war under my skin,
A fire I can't tame or win.
The mirror screams my name,
But I am not the same.
I lay my bones in the dust,
Let the flames burn down my trust.
The Lord of Hosts will rise,
And tear the night from my eyes.

CHORUS

Shadows break, the air will quake,
The sword of justice splits the snake.
I'm letting go, I'm giving in,
No chains remain, no whispered sin.
Take it all, the weight, the fight—
Your fire devours the dark tonight.

VERSE 2

I've been crawling through this decay,
Haunted by what I can't slay.
But the ground begins to shake,
When I step back, He breaks.
The thunder cracks, the earth divides,
The blackened heart, it bleeds and dies.
I'm hollowed out, I'm torn apart,
For a kingdom forged in fire and sparks.

BRIDGE

Let the blade fall, let the blood rain,
Cut through the lies, cut through the chains.
The night will scream, the dark will drown,
As the Host of Heaven brings it down.

CHORUS

Shadows break, the air will quake,
The sword of justice splits the snake.
I'm letting go, I'm giving in,
No chains remain, no whispered sin.
Take it all, the weight, the fight—
Your fire devours the dark tonight.

OUTRO

I'll die to myself, I'll bury the flame,
And rise in the power that carries His name.
The war is His, the scars are mine,
But the dark will fall, every single time.

TRACK 03

Lil Monkey

Eventide Faith / Mr. Brok3n / Lyrics by Eric Wright

VERSE 1

Before you came, I wandered blind,
Didn't know the man I had to find.
A broken map, a restless soul,
Chasing life but never whole.
Then God reached down with open hands,
Placed my world in tiny strands—
Your little smile, your little hands,
My life began where yours began.

CHORUS

Lil Monkey, gift from above,
Wrapped in laughter, wrapped in love.
From your giggles to your stubborn grace,
You flipped the world, you changed my pace.
I didn't know what life could be—
'Til God gave your heart to me.
Through His love, He made me see—
My lil monkey, you set me free.

VERSE 2

You get me goin', push my pride,
But I can't help this joy inside.
I see you think, I see you shine,
That little spark that mirrors mine.
The way you move, the way you learn,
How fast you grow, how bright you burn—
And though the road ahead is wide,
I'll walk with you right by your side.

CHORUS

Lil Monkey, gift from above,
Wrapped in laughter, wrapped in love.
From your giggles to your stubborn grace,
You flipped the world, you changed my pace.
I didn't know what life could be—
'Til God gave your heart to me.
Through His love, He made me see—
My lil monkey, you set me free.

BRIDGE

Even when you're grown and strong,
Too old to hear me call you "monkey" for long,
I'll still see that baby grin,
That little light God placed within.
My only prayer is you will find
His endless love, His perfect time.

FINAL CHORUS

Lil Monkey, gift from above,
You taught me how to live and love.
From your giggles to your stubborn grace,
You flipped the world, you changed my pace.
I didn't know what life could be—
'Til God gave your heart to me.
Forever mine, eternally—
My lil monkey, my joy, my peace.

TRACK 04

In the Life

Eventide Faith / Mr. Brok3n / Lyrics by Eric Wright

VERSE 1 - WEDDING AT CANA (JOHN 2)

We ran out of wine, the wedding almost stopped,
Mary told Him, "They've got no more — it's dropped."

He said, "Fill the jars, pour the water out,"
And when we tasted it, the best had come about!

Chorus (Crowd Together)

We saw it happen — did you see it too?
The blind can see, the lame man moves!
Everywhere He goes, the stories spread,
And the greatest sign — He rose from the dead!

VERSE 2 - HEALING THE BLIND MAN (JOHN 9)

He knelt by the road, reached down to the clay,
Touched my eyes and told me, "Go wash today."

I ran to the pool, the water hit my face,
I came back seeing — a brand-new place rule?

Guitar solo -

VERSE 3 - FEEDING THE 5,000 (JOHN 6)

Five barley loaves, two fish in a hand,
He blessed and broke, gave thanks where we stand.

We all ate our fill, twelve baskets remain,
I've never seen power like the breaking of that grain.

Chorus (Crowd Together)

We saw it happen — did you see it too?
The storms obey, the dead walk through!
Everywhere He goes, the stories spread,
And the greatest sign — He rose from the dead!

BRIDGE - CALMING THE STORM (MARK 4)

The waves rose high, the boat was tossed,
We cried, "Don't You care if we're lost?"
He stood and spoke, "Peace, be still,"
And the sea went calm at His will.

FINAL VERSE - RESURRECTION (LUKE 24 / JOHN 20)

They sealed the stone, soldiers kept the grave,
But on the third day, He rose to save.
The women cried, "The tomb is bare!"
We saw His hands, His side — He was standing there!

FINAL CHORUS - (ALL VOICES)

We saw it happen — now we testify,
The Son of God is glorified!
Everywhere He goes, the stories spread,
He is alive — He rose from the dead!

OUTRO - (LIKE A LIVESTREAM SIGN-OFF)

Pass it on, don't keep it inside,
Jesus is alive — He's still changing lives.

5 Stones

Eventide Faith / Mr. Brok3n / Lyrics by Eric Wright

VERSE 1

Lets Go!

The armies stood on either side,
A giant cursed with rage and pride.
But a shepherd boy, with staff in hand,
Said, "The Lord will fight for this land."
He would not wear the armor's weight,
For God alone would seal his fate.
With sling and stone, he took his stand,
The battle rests in the Lord's command.

CHORUS

Stand and fight, lift your eyes,
The Lord of Hosts will hear your cries.
One stone flies, the giant falls—
The God of Israel conquers all.
Fear no man, though great in size,
The Lord is strong, His power defies.

VERSE 2

He stooped to take five stones that day,
Not for doubt, but for the fray.
For Goliath's brothers yet remained,
But the Lord's sure hand would still sustain.
The lion fell, the bear was slain,
God's anointing breaks the chain.
No sword, no spear could win the fight,
The battle is the Lord's, His might.

CHORUS

Stand and fight, lift your eyes,
The Lord of Hosts will hear your cries.
One stone flies, the giant falls—
The God of Israel conquers all.
Fear no man, though great in size,
The Lord is strong, His power defies.

BRIDGE

Who is this man that defies the Lord?
He mocks with his spear, his shield, his sword.
But the Name of God is David's cry,
And the stone will strike, the giant will die!

Chorus (repeat twice, building energy)
Stand and fight, lift your eyes,
The Lord of Hosts will hear your cries.
One stone flies, the giant falls—
The God of Israel conquers all.
Fear no man, though great in size,
The Lord is strong, His power defies.

OUTRO

Five smooth stones, one was thrown,
The giant fell, God's power shown.
The battle's His, the victory clear—
The Lord delivers, year by year.

TRACK 06

My Angel

Eventide Faith / Mr. Brok3n / Lyrics by Eric Wright

VERSE 1

Beneath a sky too wide to hold, I wandered far alone,
Searching for a voice, a light, a place to call my own.
I stumbled through the fire, wore the weight of wrong,
But each misstep shaped the man who's waited
all along.

CHORUS

So lead her to me—not wings, nor flight—
But a soul that dances in morning light.
Strong in grace, calm in the storm,
A heart that's steady, fierce, and warm.
Not just a dream, not just a sign—
But the one who's been yours, and now she's mine.

VERSE 2

I've known the cost of lies, felt truth in disguise,
Held hands with shadows wearing sweet goodbyes.
But I've let go of ghosts, I've cleared the air,
Now I've got space for love that's real and rare.

CHORUS

So lead her to me—not wings, nor flight—
But a soul that dances in morning light.
Strong in grace, calm in the storm,
A heart that's steady, fierce, and warm.
Not just a dream, not just a sign—
But the one who's been yours, and now she's mine.

Instrumental break

BRIDGE

From restless days to nights alone,
I've learned what it means to be fully known.
Now I stand with open hands, open eyes,
Ready for the gift You've kept disguised.

OUTRO

So lead her to me—not from above,
But from the heart of your endless love.
A partner, a lighthouse, a steady flame,
And I'll never again walk alone in my name.
She's not just a promise, not just a sign—
She's the love You wrote into my timeline.

TRACK 07

The Architect

Eventide Faith / Mr. Brok3n / Lyrics by Eric Wright

INTRO

Before the mountains touched the sky,
Before the rivers learned to fly,
You thought of me...
Yeah, You thought of me.

VERSE 1

Before the stars lit up the night,
You carved the path, You set it right.
The heavens bowed, creation sang,
But still You held my name.

CHORUS

You're the Architect, no one else can stand,
Every breath I take was drawn by Your hand.
Love so strong, it brings me to my knees,
Your mercy's written all over me.

VERSE 2

Through broken years, through wasted time,
You pulled me back, You called me mine.
Chance after chance, grace still shines,
Your love don't let me go.

FINAL CHORUS

You're the Architect, no one else can stand,
Every breath I take was drawn by Your hand.
Love so strong, it brings me to my knees,
Your mercy's written all over me.
Yeah, You thought of me... oh, You thought of me.

3rd Round

Eventide Faith / Mr. Brok3n / Lyrics by Eric Wright

INTRO

Ladies and gentlemen... the fight of my life...
Still standing, in my 3rd round... LETS GO!

VERSE 1 - ROUND ONE

Raised in the corner, told where to stand,
Voices of faith, but I didn't understand.
Knew all the lines, but they felt so far,
Shadowboxed the truth, never knew who You are.

CHORUS

This is my 3rd round, I'm still on my feet,
Took every blow, but I won't face defeat.
Through the pain, through the doubt, through
the fall,
Your love kept me standing, I can hear Your
call.
Yeah, it's my 3rd round, and I'm giving it all.

VERSE 2 - ROUND TWO

Young and reckless, swinging blind,
Selfish heart, a troubled mind.
Knew right from wrong, but I turned away,
The Spirit was near, but I chose my way.

GITAR SOLO

PRE-CHORUS

Every stumble, every scar,
You were still there in my corner.
Even when I lost the fight,
Your mercy pulled me back to life.

CHORUS

This is my 3rd round, I'm still on my feet,
Took every blow, but I won't face defeat.
Through the pain, through the doubt, through
the fall,
Your love kept me standing, I can hear Your
call.
Yeah, it's my 3rd round, and I'm giving it all.

BRIDGE - THE SHIFT

Bell keeps ringing, can't run away,
Found my strength when I learned to pray.
On my knees, I saw the plan,
Your grace in the fight made me a new man.

FINAL CHORUS

This is my 3rd round, I'm standing tall,
You took my weakness, You gave it all.
Through the fire, through the storm, through the night,
Your love is my victory, my final fight.
This is my 3rd round... and I'm giving it all.

OUTRO

Round one... I didn't see...
Round two... I fell to me...
Round three... You carried me...
Victory.
