Iron Will

Mr. Brok3n / Lyrics by Eric Wright

SINGLE

AUG 9, 2025

VERSE 1

Billionaire in a warzone — selling fire to kings
 Golden life on a razor's edge — blind to the sting
 Chain of fate locked tight — desert dust in my lungs
 The deal's gone south — now the real work's begun

CHORUS 1

Build the heart in the dark — beat the steel into flame
 I am the blade — I am the spark — I am more than my name
 Break the chains — take the sky — let the fire ignite
 My true nature's calling — I was born to fight

VERSE 2

Hammer rings on the iron — shadows burn in the cave
 Blood and grit in the furnace — nothing left to save
 Every strike, every spark — breathes a new kind of man
 When the gates explode — I'll show them where I stand

Build the heart in the dark — beat the steel into flame
 I am the blade — I am the spark — I am more than my name
 Break the chains — take the sky — let the fire ignite
 My true nature's calling — I was born to fight

BREAKDOWN

Low drums — slow march — suit breathes its first breath
 Metal hands pull me forward — I'm a weapon of death
 From the ash — from the blood — the iron man stands tall
 No retreat — no surrender — I will burn them all

Build the heart in the dark — beat the steel into flame
 I am the blade — I am the spark — I am more than my name
 Break the chains — take the sky — let the fire ignite
 My true nature's calling — I was born to fight
